FRIENDS OF IRISH FREEDOM TO ORGANIZE IN NORWICH

Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in Foresters' hall, there is to be a meeting for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Friends of Irish Free-branches are being established in all age. P the cities in this country. The Friends Atlanta of Ireland consider this the appropriate time to have Ireland receive her recognition as an independent nation, and the demand is to be continued until the same is accomplished. The peace council is restoring to small na-tions affiliated in the past with Ger-many and Austria and Turkey their ght to self-government, and ireland unsiders the allied powers should deal with her subjects in the same manner people of Ireland for over five the people of fretand for over his building the severage from English rule, and one of their principal reasons for this is that England unsurped the control of that England unsurped the control of freland without legal right.

Prominent speakers will make addresses. A large attendance is looked for from Norwich and surrounding towns, as the meeting is to be public. It is considered that no better locality for the formation of a branch favoring self-determination for Ireland could be chosen than is Norwich, where the fires of Liberty were kindled early in Revolutionary times, and where ardent patriots gave and where ardent patriots garringth and life if need be, to with very boon of independence which the Irish republic is now

DAVIS THEATRE.

For the first half of next week the management of the Davis will offer an excellent hill of Keith big time vau-deville and Paramount Arteraft feature pictures. The big attraction is the Temple Quartette a clever sing and with might make and here. ing act with mirth, music and ba mony. The second offering is J. Fran-cis Sullivan and company, in the com-edy skit. "The Live Wire," an eccentrie singing and talking novelty. The third act is Ryan and O'Neil, in a singing and doneing specialty that is in a class by itself. All three acts are regular standard Keith offerings and come here direct from the larger Kelth theatres. The feature picture is Hen-ry B. Walthall, in Thomas H. Ince's latest and greatest musicrpiece, 'The False Faces,' a six rurt Paramount Arieraft special production, Who that has read Vance's first story of the fascinating French crock, The Low Wolf, word, with a mis-

He is pursuing a Him who has wrecked his home from motives of revenge as well as of lov selty. And in the end, after a series of wild adventures, he "gets" him. These adventures entail an attack by L-boar on a line, the falling of the ero upon the deck of the submersible his escape and exposure of the secret base on Martha's Vineyard, and equally thrilling experiences. Walthall's work is said to be good or better than anyth Holmes Travelogue and a funny Lyons

BREED THEATRE.

"The Better 'Ole," or the romance of Old Bill, is the big comedy success of the season. It is now playing to the season. It is now playing to the season of the season of the season of the season. It is now playing to the season of the seaso in New York city, and five road com-panies are presenting it in various parts of the country. And new, on the screen, you will have the oppor-tunity at the Breed theatre today of seeing this corking good comedy knowles looms. Automobile tire fabric, which has pleased hundreds of thousands. "The Better 'Ole" is the comedy Twister tenders, etc. Good job. Good ands. 'The Better 'Ole' is the comedy 'twister contents, of the war. It shows the men in the pay. Good tenements, trenches as they were during the big conflict, and it is not overdrawn in any particular. There are no heroes, any particular, exercising is not. no forced moments—everything is nat-ical and unstitled it is a visualiza-tion of the life of the figniers in their lighter moments, when they laughed and kidded and loved. The players apbearing in the screen version of The Better Ole" are those who made such an enormous hit in the original production. They are all skilled players who were chosen because of the fact that they were the personification of the authors ideas regarding the various characters. They certainly give a most delightful presentation of this most pleasing comedy.

Other pictures un the bill include the Pathe News and a Harold Lloyd which I was fortunate enough to Then when I returned to the city the dinner was over and I had but tittle time for sociability as it was so stormy the company went home cares I am not prepared to give a re-ort of the meeting. Hob White was there, and as usual was a willing heiper, and as usual was a willing heiper, and I presume will give an excellent report of the meeting as she usually does.

We were very sorry to hear that Great Grandma was in feeble health. We hope that she may feel that she is in the "green nastures of her become n the "green pastures of her heaven's Father's loving kindness" and besid he "still waters" that He gives to those who love Him.

I was very glad to meet Anna Mell there, for she has not met with Club No. I in a long time before—hope she will come oftener.

I miss Grandma H. very much hope next meeting the weather will be so pleasant that we may meet all of those who have been in the habit of meeting with us in the past.

With love and good wishes for all of the Social Corner family. AUNT MARY.
